A DELIGHTFUL DANCE IN C. K. OF A. HALL.

The younger set of Jewish society enjoyed a delightful dance Thursday night in C. K. of A. Hall, the first of the series. Wyer's orchestra furnished excellent music and everybody danced till 12 o'clock when they adjourned to a prominent restaurant where a delicious menu was served.

Those present were, Miss Esther Guggenheim, Miss Bertha C. Lichten, Miss Lillian L. Jacoby, Miss Theresa Jacoby, Miss Reia Cahn, Miss Leah Cahn, Miss Fannie Berlin, Miss Fannie Waggenheim, Miss Bertha Levy, Miss Lola Menko, Miss Kate Cashman and the chaperones Mr. Herman Berlin and Miss Teresa Stone.

Also Mr. Joe Stone, Mr. Martin Menko, Mr. Clarence M. Frenkel, Mr. Rudolph Flashner, Mr. Sam Lightman, Mr. Jake Berlin, Mr. Leon Levy, Mr. Ben C. Heinberg, Mr. Harry Waggenheim, Mr. Mozart, Lichtoff, Mr. Herbert P. Mowg, Mr. Joe Stone, Mr. Joe Guggenheim and Mr. Ralph Berlin.

HAVE YOU THOUGHT OF IT?

The Louisiana Purchase Exposition was the only world's fair of modern times, says the Shelbyville, Ill., Union, that had uniformly perfect weather from beginning to end. It was the only world's fair of modern times which closed its gates free from debt. It was the only world's fair since the Centennial whose management observed the Fourth Commandment, "remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." Perhaps you have not thought of these things in this way.

TO CONGRATULATE MISS WOOLLEN.

The numerous friends of Miss Dolly Woollen called on her Friday night to congratulate her on her eighteenth birthday.

She received many handsome presents and delicious refreshments were served in abundance. Each and everyone enjoyed the occasion immensely and wished her many happy returns wishing Miss Dolly would have a birthday every week.

TO BE WEDDED IN MARCH.

Mr. P. S. Sowell, connected with the McMillan Mill Co., of Pine Barren, and Miss Della Clyburne of this city, are to be married March 15.

Miss Clyburne is the very efficient and popular "chief operator" of the Bell Telephone exchange whose unfailing courtesy, tact and patience, have averted all sorts of premeditated "disasters," phonic and profane, on the part of impatient and exasperated patrons—real and assumed—for many

BISHOP WEED CONFIRMS ST. KATHARINE'S CLASS.

Right Reverend Edwin G. Weed, bishop of this Episcopal diocese, will administer confirmation this morning at 11 o'clock at St. Katharine's.

MRS. ROSENAU'S WASHINGTON EUCHRE.

Mrs. Lizzie Rosenau entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Euchre very beautifully with a Washington birthday celebration at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Max L. Bear.

The decorations were all patriotic and the score cards were miniature hatchets.

The first prize was a lovely jardiniere captured by Mrs. Sol Cahn and the second prize of a set of glasses went to Mrs. Max Bear.

In the handsomely decorated dining room a delicious course luncheon carried the colors throughout. The table was a picture in its cloth of lacy Mexican drawn work over a cherry red cover.

The center piece was a natural little cherry tree full of cherries and canopied by streamers of red white and blue ribbons gathered from the corners of the table and knotted to the chandelier.

The salad course was gaily decorated with little American flag souvenirs and the hostess was enthusiastically complimented on the beauty and success of her lovely and graceful celebration of George's one hundred and third birthday.

Mrs. Max Klein will be the next hostess.

DOODY-McCAFFERTY WEDDING IN MOBILE.

The following account of the wedding of Miss McCafferty, niece of the late Rev. Father J. P. McCafferty, late rector of St. Michael church, and who is well known in this city, is reprinted from the "Social Items" of the Mobile Register and will be of interest to many readers of The Journal:

The grand old Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception was the scene of an extremely pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Miss Annie Josephine McCafferty and Mr. Edgar A. Doody plighted their troth. The church, with its recent improvements, was indeed a lovely background for this wedding with its color scheme of blue and white. The bridal party was led by the four ushers, Messrs. Vince Horres, John McAleer, Lee Bender and Alphonse Leavitt. They were followed by Miss Francis Swaine, of Pensacola, as bridesmaid, accompanied by the groomsmen, Mr. Clarence V. Evans. Then the maid of honor, Miss May McCafferty, sister of the bride, and last the bride accompanied by her father, Mr. J. T. McCafferty. As the bridal party slowly proceeded up the aisle Miss Garner played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and at the foot of the altar steps the groom and his best man, Mr. Joe Sheehan, met the bride party, all then entered the sanctuary where the sweet and solemn ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Shaw. Beautiful, indeed, was this scene as they grouped around the altar whose beauty was brought forth more vividly by the stately palms and many lights. To the triumphant strains of Lohengrin's wedding march sung by the choir, the party left the church.

The bride could not have shown better taste or chosen more attractive girls to grace her wedding party than her sweet sister and her life long friend from fair Florida. The former was gowned in blue de swa over taffeta, with blue picture hat to match and carried white carnations tied with blue ribbon. The bridesmaid was gowned in white de swa over taffeta with white picture hat touched with blue, and carried white carnations tied with blue ribbon.

The bride, gowned in her soft dress of Japanese silk and veil of illusion, looked the happy bride in every sense, and her costume well became her brunette type and added to her possessed staidness. She carried bride's roses tied with white ribbon and made a most attractive centre for this pretty wedding. She is the daughter of Mr. J. T. McCafferty, and her bright and happy disposition has endeared herself to everyone. In the business circles of Mobile, and they enter upon their wedded life with the best wishes of all. A reception was tendered the bridal party and relatives at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Doody will be at home to their friends after Sunday, the 26th instant, at 263 South Clairborne street.

ARMY AND NAVY NOTES.

Colonel H. W. Hubbell and Mrs. Hubbell gave a dinner on Saturday evening in honor of Admiral and Mrs. Rodgers. The other guests were Admiral and Mrs. Stevens, Captain Perry and Miss Neff from the navy yard. It was the most beautiful evening of the winter and the band furnished music from the front yard. The officers and ladies of the post gave a dance in one of the new buildings next Tuesday evening. A special dummy will run down to the post leaving Pensacola about a quarter of eight and returning after the hop.

Colonel H. W. Hubbell, in command of the Artillery District, and his adjutant Lieutenant Coward, went down to Mobile to inspect Fort Morgan on Friday.

IN HONOR OF MISS WRIGHT.

The Mobile Register, of February 24, contains the following: Mrs. W. B. Wright, of Pensacola, was honored with a luncheon yesterday by Mrs. Harry Patterson which did credit to the hostess, so lovely was the pretty table at which an eight-course lunch was enjoyed by Mrs. E. F. Adams, Mrs. Walter Cunningham, Mrs. Clarence P. Robinson, Mrs. E. D. Bondurant, Mrs. George Lyons, Mrs. Robert Wayne, Mrs. L. C. Parker, Mrs. James Sawyer, Mrs. F. P. Davis, Mrs. Joseph Reid, of New York, Mrs. Wright and the hostess.

The mingling of pink and green in the decorations made the table bright and gave it a touch that was suggestive of spring. In the centre were two baskets filled with pink carnations and ornamented with pink tulle, these were flanked on each side by handsome silver candelabra holding pink and green candles, and then to offset the lights and bring out the pink of the carnations a basket of feathery ferns, whose handles were tied with fluffy green tulle bows were on each side of the candelabra. Hand painted carnations were the place cards, and little fancy boxes filled with the natural flowers were at each place. The ice cups were pink and green and in each detail this dainty luncheon proved to be one of the prettiest of the season.

LOVELY CARD PARTY FOR MISS CLYDE RANEY.

Mrs. E. O. Saltmarsh entertained charmingly Saturday afternoon for Miss Raney, C. Maxwell's lovely guest, Miss Raney of Tallahassee.

Rosique, Master Fritz Roa Rosique, Misses Lola and Hazel Williams, Hazel Prather, Eva Davis, Elsie Scott, Eva Myers, Mabel and Minnie Malone, Ruth Westmark, Maggie Maloney, Masters Chester and Jim Hilliard, Carl Zerr, Miss Belle Daniels, Masters Mallory Lawrence and Roscoe Davis.

FOR MISS GLENN.

Miss Estelle and Miss Bessie Langford entertained Thursday evening with progressive flinch for Miss Nellie Glenn, at their home, 16 North Spring. It was an informal but charming affair, not only for the guests but for the hostess and her lovely honoree.

The score cards were pretty red hearts tied with red ribbon and Miss Bessie, one of the charming hostesses scored.

Those playing were Miss Glenn, Miss Clara Andrews, Miss Willie Etheridge, Miss Bessie D'Alemberte, Miss M. Boothe and Miss Estelle Langford, Mr. McKinstry, Mr. James Andrews, Mr. Arthur Johnson, Mr. Owen Langford, Mr. Fred Favourite, Mr. Mason Boothe and Mr. Homer Jones.

MISS QUINA ENTERTAINS WITH VIOLET EUCHRE FOR THREE FAIR MAIDENS.

Miss Bernadette Quina entertained beautifully with cards Thursday night for her sister Miss Celestine Quina and for her guests Miss Heintz of Buffalo, N. Y., and Miss Hanway of Greenville, Miss.

The decorations throughout were in violet. There were eight tables of six hand euchre and on each table there was a cluster of violets with long streamers of violet ribbon, except the "head" table on which there was a great bunch of violet ribbons with two bunches of violets.

From the chandeliers in both card rooms were suspended shower bouquets of violets and from the one in the front room the girls drew for the violet to which was attached the word "Consolation," while the men drew from the shower in the rear room.

On each table were violet and green candles. The score cards for the men were violet and green fans and for the girls were Japanese umbrellas on which those colors were in evidence. Little violets were strung on violet ribbon for counters.

Miss Maude Fernald won the girl's first prize a silver jewel case, and Mr. Malcolm Yonge the men's first a gun metal cigarette case.

There was great fun drawing violets from the showers of the chandeliers for the "consolations," Miss Heintz capturing a Japanese card case and Mr. Teno Brent a book.

Mr. Dick Carroll was awarded a Japanese man heating a drum, and Mrs. Hyer Whiting a Japanese doll for the lowest scores.

Miss Johnnie Skinner, Miss Louise Quina cousin, and Miss Alice Quina sister of the hostess, were the charming trio who served punch throughout the evening.

The salad and dessert courses served after the prizes had been awarded, included chicken salad, violet cakes and violets on the ice cream.

Among the half hundred guests was Mr. Hutchinson of New Orleans.

MRS. LAMAR'S DANCE FOR ATTRACTIVE GUESTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lamar gave a very lovely dance and supper at the Osceola Club Friday night for their attractive guests, Miss Pearl and Miss Cora Lewis of Valdosta, Ga.

The music was delightful and the table in the grille room, from which delicious salad and sweet courses were served was a symphony in pink carnations and greenery, while innumerable fine boxed plants were placed about the grille room. Punch was served throughout the evening.

Among those invited were Miss Elise Chipley, Miss Annie Baars, Miss Mamie Merritt, Miss Lois Covington (of North Carolina), Miss Edna and Miss Louise Covington, Miss Lella Reese, Miss Stella, Miss Katharine and Miss Edna Avery, Miss Daisy Eyer, Miss Florence Tuley, Miss Cora and Miss Ruby Mallory, Miss Willis, Miss McGaughey, Miss Fannie Caldwell, Miss Belle Whiting, Miss Lillie Taylor, Miss Katie and Miss Bertie Smith, Miss Patti Holden, Miss Alice and Miss Mildred Kessler, Miss Eleanor Berrett (of Baltimore, Md.), Miss Marie Sullivan, Miss Berta Hyer, Miss Mary Chaffin, Miss Herring (of Brooklyn, N. ENTERTAINED BY MR. AND MRS. MCGIBBONS.
Mr. and Mrs. James McGibbon entertained the Neighborhood Euchre very pleasantly at their home on Thursday evening. The decorations were in the national colors beautifully arranged and the dainty sandwiches served with the luncheon were tied with red, white and blue ribbons.

Mrs. George P. Wentworth and Dr. Marsh won the first prizes, while Miss Herring (of Brooklyn), and Judge Reese captured the consolation.

MARICH-WHITEHEAD INVITATIONS RECALLED.

Owing to the death of the bride-elect's grandmother, the wedding festivities planned for the marriage of Mr. Marich and Miss Florence Mary Whitehead have been abandoned and all invitations are recalled.

MRS. MERRITT'S AT HOME A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

Mrs. John A. Merritt's "at home" Friday evening for her brother Mr. R. H. Turner, Jr., and bride, formerly Miss Quina, and for Miss Hanway of Mississippi, was a charmingly enjoyable assemblage of a congenial party of young people.

Mrs. Merritt's home is well adapted to entertaining and on this occasion the large parlor and sitting room were thrown into one large card room. The walls are in pale pink exquisitely hand painted and the decorations were great quantities of growing plants including magnificent blooming azaleas.

There were eight tables of six hand euchre for which Miss Cora Hunt and Miss Louise Quina scored.

Miss Mamie Merritt gracefully dispensed delicious punch in the dining room.

Miss Kelly and Miss Celestine Quina cut for the first prize, a gold
